VISA COMPLIANCE

Once you have received your visa, there are requirements you must meet in order for it to remain valid, including:

1. You must remain enrolled and maintain satisfactory course progress and attendance.

2. NorthEd have processes for monitoring course progress and attendance and non-compliance to meeting these requirements may affect your visa. Refer to your Student Handbook or the Web Site Compliance page to view these policies and procedures.

3. If you wish to change your qualification level you will need to apply for a new student visa.

4. If you wish to change Training Providers you must stay with the first provider for 6 months, and prior to transferring to another provider you must provide a new letter of Offer and an eCoE from the new provider to be released. Refer to the process for transfer between providers on the web site.

5. You will need to provide your Australian address to your Provider so they can contact you.

6. You are required to update your details every 6 months and let us know if you change address.

7. You must continue to be able to support yourself financially while you’re in Australia. You will have the ability to engage in employment for up to 20 hours per week, whilst studying to assist you with your finances. When on holidays, you can work as many hours as you like.

8. It is important that you do not breach the working conditions applicable to your visa.
