The Certificate III in Individual Support is nationally recognised under the Australian Qualifications Framework, and upon completion you could gain employment in many different types of positions to suit your needs and personal goals. Throughout this course you’ll learn how to provide support to meet personal needs, implement individualised plans and empower those with disabilities.

Potential career outcomes
Accommodation Support Worker, Care Assistant, Community Care Worker, Disability Support Worker, Residential Care Officer.
Successful candidates will receive national recognition with their CHC33015 Certificate III in Individual Support from NorthEd International College.

Course location and duration
Students will study at our Mildura Campus. The Duration of the course is 36 Weeks, including 2 weeks holidays.

Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL)
RPL recognises the skills you have gained from other courses such as life and work experiences and training provided in your workplace. The RPL process measures your skills against the outcomes of the course in which you are going to enrol. It also acknowledges that you may already have more than the required level of skills but no formal accreditation of them in some units of the course. This process enables us to identify gaps in your skills and deliver training where required to meet industry standards.
