Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL)
RPL recognises the skills you have gained from other courses such as life and work experiences and training provided in your workplace. The RPL process measures your skills against the outcomes of the course in which you are going to enrol. It also acknowledges that you may already have more than the required level of skills but no formal accreditation of them in some units of the course. This process enables us to identify gaps in your skills and deliver training where required to meet industry standards.
